

Congratulations 2012 Conservation Award Winners!

Environmental Professional

Seth Lerman, Resource Conservationist, USDA— Natural Resource Conservation Service, in recognition of his longstanding commitment and exceptional collaborative efforts in support of community initiatives to protect and improve the Coginchaug River Watershed.

Environmental Professional

Pat Young, Program Director, Eightmile River Wild & Scenic Watershed, in recognition of her exceptional leadership and efforts to engage the community in protecting and improving the Eightmile River Watershed

Cooperator

Stoneridge Farm, Dino Esposito, in recognition of his commitment to protecting water quality at Stoneridge Farm, and his cooperative efforts resulting in the successful implementation of a variety of management improvements

Special Merit Award

Kevin Magee, Environmental Planner, Town of Guilford, in recognition of your commitment to supporting community efforts to protect and improve the Coginchaug River Watershed

Special Merit Award

Ballek's Garden Center, Anita Ballek, in recognition of 350 years of land stewardship, your commitment to environmentally sustainable practices, and your efforts to promote environmental and soil health through educational programs and product offerings

Certificates of Appreciation

Chamard Vineyards, Clinton Nurseries, CT River Expeditions, Priam Vineyards, and R2 Graphics, Inc., in recognition of generous contributions to the 7th Annual Tree Swallow Cruise and Wine Tasting Fundraiser in support of the Connecticut River Watch Program

Clinton Nurseries, Old Saybrook Shopping Center, Sunny Border Nurseries, in recognition of ongoing and generous support of the Conservation District's annual plant sale

Comer & Company, LLC. , in recognition of generous services to the Conservation District during the 2011-2012 Fiscal Year